

Rental assistance in Portland Oregon and Multnomah County.

Find short to midterm programs that offer rental assistance in Portland Oregon. Several different non-profit organizations, charities, churches social service agencies and government programs may be able to provide funds so people can prevent evictions and also pay their monthly rent. In addition, many of the Portland housing assistance agencies can also offer case management and referrals to services such as Section 8 housing vouchers or security deposit assistance programs.

Typically qualified applicants in Multnomah County can receive rent assistance for at most two years, however it is usually for a shorter period of time. While the exact terms and conditions will vary, it can include temporary assistance with paying rent or mortgage payments, motel or hotel vouchers, funds to pay security deposits, and emergency eviction prevention assistance. In addition, referrals can be given to low income housing or apartments in the city of Portland.

Home Forward (formerly known as the Housing Authority of Portland (HAP))

Phone Number - 503-802-8300

The agency is involved in offering short term rent assistance as funds allow, but funding is limited. For the most accurate and up-to-date information on rental assistance availability please call the health and human services hotline for Oregon by dialing 2-1-1 for callers with a 503 or 971 area code, or if out of the area dial 503.222.5555

Catholic Charities

Portland office rent assistance phone number: 503-489-6842

Second address is 138 NE 3rd Street, Suite 140, Gresham, Oregon 97030, dial 503-669-8350

Low income families, regardless of nationality or religion, may qualify for help in Multnomah County. There are multiple offices in the Portland area, as indicated above. They partner with churches across Portland Oregon. Financial assistance is limited. Apply for rent help, electric bills, and they also have low cost furniture or other housing items. One program known as El Programa Hispano focuses on Latinos. More on Catholic Charities housing assistance in Multnomah County.

Impact NW

10055 E Burnside St.

Rent assistance hotline: 503-988-6545. Programs are offered for all of Multnomah County low income and residents in need, who meet qualifications. This non-profit may also offer no interest loans as a form of rental assistance. They are part of the regional community action agency network and address housing issues, battle poverty, offers grants for paying deposits, rent, or mortgages and more.

<https://impactnw.org/programs/housing-and-safety-net/housing-rent-assistance/>

The Multnomah DDSD Housing Assistance program works with the city of Portland Housing Authority. DDSD may be able to provide a limited amount of short-term housing and rent assistance to participants who are at risk of homelessness or evictions. This assistance is very limited and low income families can only apply at most once per year. Any help is usually offered in the form of rent, security deposit, or motel/hotel voucher assistance. Dial 503-988-3658.

Multnomah County St. Vincent De Paul
Of Portland Social Services

5120 SE Milwaukie Avenue

Portland, Oregon 97202

Main number - (503) 233-5589

Programs can help people of all backgrounds and religions. Rent assistance, referrals, and case management may be provided for the low income, unemployed, and senior citizens in Portland Oregon. The homeless may be able to get a free motel voucher for a short term stay in Portland. The working poor and families with children are a main focus of the emergency rental assistance programs. Also

211 Info – Connecting Informing Empowering

<https://www.211info.org/multco-rent>

Human Solutions: <https://humansolutions.org/services/housing-stability/>